HARVEST FAYRE STALLHOLDERS AND HELPERS meeting after service on Sunday 5th July. We are getting our plans in good order for this lovely event to be held on Saturday 3rd October but it would be great if more people were able to be involved. Please speak to Susan Peatfield or email her at sjpeatfield@aol.com if you have not yet been "harvested"!

HARVEST SEWING BEES! - Christine Bates is busy sewing items for our Harvest Fayre and would be grateful for offers of odd clothing or fabric remnants (cotton, linen, modal or similar) or curtains being thrown out. Christine has also offered to host some Sewing Bee evenings, so if you are a handy with a needle or would like to try why not join in with this. Please speak to Christine or contact sjpeatfield@aol.com

HARVEST CANDLE MAKERS! – David Rowe is intending to manufacture bees wax candles (beeswax is obviously a product of bee keeping and should be included in the fare along with honey). If anyone is interested in assisting in this project he would welcome the help. He is planning to produce rolled and cast candles and possibly dipped and floating candles. No previous experience necessary and all materials will be provided, enthusiasm would be the only thing to bring along. Anyone wishing to join in please contact him, via the parish office, all production to be at his home. Could accommodate days or evenings. Added interest could be a hive inspection if anyone so desired to see where the raw materials come from. There are approx, 60,000 bees in a hive so a good memory for names is useful.
